

1 Timothy 4:12-16 (NIV)

12 Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity. 13 Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching and to teaching. 14 Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through prophecy when the body of elders laid their hands on you. 15 Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress. 16 Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

What sticks out to you from the passage?
What do you learn about God?
Where do you need His help to live out this Word?

Consider areas of your life below. "Watch your life and doctrine closely." In what ways do these spheres of your life mirror how God invites us to live in the passage? In what ways do you need Him to change you?

Spend some time in prayer after reflecting and consider sharing what you've learned with a friend for accountability.
